

GUERNSEY.—Water Lane, Moulin Huet.

Oilette
A

LL5910

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE.

POSTKARTE.

GUERNSEY.—Water Lane. Moulin Huet. The many miles of greenhouses and little workmen's cottages have robbed Guernsey of most of its natural beauty, but there are spots still left unspoilt by man. The most lovely of these is, perhaps, Moulin Huet. For quiet rustic charm can anything surpass this picture of Water Lane "with ivy canopied, and interwove with flaunting honey-suckle"?

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

CTPA12.9

GUERNSEY.—Water Lane, Moulin Huet.

Oilette
3

the mornings. The weather still keeps pull here in fact it is very foggy

"THE CHANNEL ISLANDS." - Guernsey. Series

"The Channel Islands,"
L. B. Wimbush (A. & C. Rickard)

From "THE CHANNEL ISLANDS," illustrated by

GUERNSEY. - Water Lane, Moulin Huet. "The many miles of greenhouses and little workmen's cottages have ruined Guernsey's most of its natural beauty, but there are spots left undisposed by man. The most lovely of these is, perhaps, Moulin Huet. For quiet rustic charm can anything surpass the picture of Water Lane "with ivy
canopied, and interwove with haunting honey-suckle"?"

*Muriel had intended writing
this morning to thank you for your nice letter. but
She has written to Miss Drving rather a big budgett - I could not possibly wait longer
for more as you know how pressed I am for time in*

By Appointment.

CARTE POSTALE

PUCK'S POST CARD

SOUTHAMPTON

6.

PM

POSTKARTE.

JUL 17 1898

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Rev. Francis Davidson

Schooling Vicar

Southampton

CTPA 12.9

GUERNSEY.—Water Lane, Moulin Huet.

Oilette
8

I shall answer
your letter
to-morrow

LL5910

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTES POSTALES.

POSTKARTE.

GUERNSEY.—Water Lane, Moulin Huet. The many miles of greenhouses and little workmen's cottages have robbed Guernsey of most of its natural beauty, but there are spots still left unspoilt by man. The most lovely of these is, perhaps, Moulin Huet. For quiet rustic charm can anything surpass this picture of Water Lane "with ivy canopied, and interwove with flaunting honey-suckle"?

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

90

Dear Alice just a few lines in answer to your P. C. hoping you are all in the best of health as it leaves us all
at present and I hope you will like this P. C.
I went on Candie Ground
last night to hear the band
and Clara Kenouf sang sister Harriet

Miss A. Grizzel
Alma House
Egg Buckland Road
Compton
Plymouth

Printed in England.
I remain your loving sister Harriet

GUERNSEY. — Water Lane, Moulin Huet.

Oilette
3

LL5910

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE.

POSTKARTE.

GUERNSEY.—Water Lane Mou'in Huet. The many miles of greenhouses and little workmen's cottages have robbed Guernsey of most of its natural beauty, but there are spots still left unspoiled by man. The most lovely of these is, perhaps, Moulin Huet. For quiet rustic charm can anything surpass this picture of Water Lane "with ivy canopied, and interwove with flaunting honey-suckle"?

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

My Dear Fitz Received as promised, many a fine time. Weather fine.
 Scenery splendid. Can't walk, too busy. Nice lodge in a quiet
 "Worthy, what more
 do you want
 Yours
 F. J. C.

Harold E. Fitzgerald
 80, Montpelier Rd.
 Peckham
 E.

C 7PA12.9